Auto-Generate Learning Modules

AI Design Assistant

- If you need help designing your course, the AI Design Assistant can guide you by generating learning modules based on your course's title and description.
- If you already have content in your course, Auto-Generate Modules is an option in the Create Item menu.
- The Auto-Generate Modules panel appears. Each generated module comes with a name and description.
- Once you've finalized your settings, select Generate. Choose the modules you'd like to add to your course, then select Add to Course.
